

Dental Instructor
Greenville Technical College
Greenville, South Carolina

Anticipated Salary: Commensurate with experience within state guidelines
Hours: 40 hrs/week - Hours will vary. There will be day and evening hours
Campus: Barton and off site rotation sites

Closing Date: July 9, 2010

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

In this challenging role, you will support the Dental department at Greenville Technical College. Duties may include any or all of the following:

- Maintaining adequate supplies and organizing and placing monthly orders.
- Perform preventative maintenance on all clinical equipment and scheduling repairs as needed.
- Ensuring program compliance with all OSHA, HIPAA, DHEC guidelines.
- Assist students with instrument problems.
- Be prepared to teach any Dental Programs courses.
- Other duties as assigned

Greenville Technical College is the largest technical college in South Carolina and the third largest institution of higher learning in the state. Our faculty and staff members enjoy a supportive work environment that supports diversity and inclusion in a dynamic learning environment. We invite you to consider becoming a part of our Dental Programs team!

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Bachelor's degree in dental or related field. Graduate from an ADA accredited program.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Hold a Master's degree or be working toward.
- DANB certification or willingness to get certified.

If you are interested in applying to this position, please complete our online application at:
<http://www.gvltec.edu/HR/>